Abuse of Minors Pastoral Response Hotline
(405-720-9878)

For the safety of children and the healing of victims, the Archdiocese of Oklahoma City provides an Abuse of Minors Pastoral Response Hotline for reporting the abuse of a minor (in the past or presently) by a member of the clergy or other church personnel. Calls to this number will be answered by the Archdiocesan Assistance Coordinator who will offer to meet with the caller in person, if the caller so desires. The Assistance Coordinator will also assist you in making a formal complaint to the Archdiocese, arranging a personal meeting with the Archbishop or his representative and in obtaining support and pastoral counseling.

Calls are confidential with the following exceptions:

Any allegation of sexual or physical abuse or neglect concerning those who currently are minors must be reported to the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (1-800-522-3511) as required by Oklahoma laws and Archdiocesan policies.

Any allegation of sexual misconduct must be shared with the proper Archdiocesan authorities

Local law enforcement agencies may also be contacted

In addition, there are several things you may do.

Contact the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (1-800-522-3511). Contacting DHS is mandatory if the victim is a minor.

Contact the appropriate law enforcement agency (for example the local police).

Contact local child protection agencies, a private attorney or a support group.

Current Parish Council members are: Joe Tyranic, Susan Laughlin, Bill Lanie, Don Zawisza, Neil Baltazor, Jeff Wagner, and Carolyn Nowakowski. Notes on the Text: If you were raised with Christ, seek what is above

Take caution note to see the second reading this week to mean "world=bad, heaven=good." Colossians says something much more. It spells out the implications of the freedom that comes from baptism. In baptism believers die to self-seeking behavior. Accepting Christ means rejecting allegiance to the "powers" that enslaved people to sin—hence the passage's calling these evil actions "idolatry"—and putting on a whole new self.

This reorientation, though, is not yet complete. In somewhat mysterious words, "your life is hidden with Christ in God," the reading points to Christ's return; "then you too will appear with him in glory." Such renewal leaves behind the purposeless vanity Qoholeth speaks of and the possessiveness Jesus shows to be so empty in the parable.
