Though the Beatitudes talk of the future, the fullness of life God will give in the time to come begins now. Trust in God and live righteously now and your happiness, now partial and interwoven with some suffering, will extend into God's future, where it will be complete.

INQUIRING MINDS WANT TO KNOW

What is the status of the Building Project?

Currently the Architect is in the process of drawing up the blueprints. When these are completed (in approximately 2 more months) the Project Manager can begin seeking bids to be approved by the Building Committee. After this process construction can begin. We appreciate your continued donations to the Building Fund.

Cooks for the Soup Supper – February 22

Jesus reminds us that facing temptation is the way we distinguish reality from illusion, sort out our true vocation from self-serving fantasy and ground our lives in the only truth that can endure a lifetime—the will of God.

Servers!! Please let us know your spring break schedule so that we may schedule the Masses! Thanks!

Solidarity with the poor – Rice Bowl Collections

A small influx of resources can make a big difference. Tangare a resident in Mali (West Africa) couldn't earn enough as a tailor to support her family. With a small loan from Catholic Relief Services, she expanded her business and could ultimately purchase school supplies for her children. Meeting with other women in similar situations they help one another in emergencies. By contributing to the Rice Bowl Collection (second collection at all the Masses in Lent) you too are shouldering their burden and expressing solidarity with the poor.

WHY ARE THE STATUES COVERED DURING LENT?

The covered statues help us focus more fully on the crucified Jesus during the season of Lent. They are also a reminder of Jesus time spent in the desert before beginning His public life. Our Lenten observances should help us reflect the person of Jesus. By meditating on his image we are given the opportunity to "fast" from distractions and "feast" on the sacrifice of Christ which has redeemed us.

Dick Folger

A college student was taking his final exam in Philosophy 101. On the test paper there was only a single line, which read: "Is this a question? Discuss."

After a short time, the student wrote: "If that is a question, then this is an answer."

He got an A on the exam.

Today's Gospel describes the transfiguration of Jesus, as the disciples witnessed the blinding light, the prophetic vision and the voice speaking from the cloud. If the disciples had any questions about this Jesus they were following, the Transfiguration was the astounding answer.
